Hmm yeah this is probably the overall best DLC pack I've played so far? Various sizes of pictures for both the quick completes and large, time-consuming images but aside from a handful of digitized photos again being present (though none as bad as the worst farm images) and another repeated pattern image (again not as tedious as the one in the farm pack though) most of the pics are pretty enjoyable to complete. Dunno which pack I'll get next after this though, we'll see.
